

Soviet Seminar Evaluation

I found the Soviet Seminar conducted during July and August to be excellently planned, instructive, and interesting. I would suggest that in future seminars a mimeographed program of lecture topics be given participants and that the practice of alternating topics by days be discontinued so that those interested in only one phase of the subject might more conveniently attend all the lectures on that topic.